BOSWORTH'S APPRECIATION

Hobart Bosworth Will Be Host to All Tempe Monday Night; First Production with Universal Co., "Fatherhood," to Be Seen

On two occasions next week will Hobart Bosworth be seen in motion pictures at the opera house, and on Monday evening Mr. Bosworth himself will be host to all of Tempe. By special arrangements he has secured the films of "Fatherhood," the first picture he ever acted in for the Universal company, and through cooperation with the opera house management the picture will be shown complete at two shows to be given Monday evening.

Mr. Bosworth has been pleasantly received by his former Tempe friends and by way of appreciation for the good turns the townspeople are doing for himself and the company members, he has arranged this little evening of entertainment at his own expense. "Fatherhood" is a drama in four parts and Mr. Bosworth claims it as one of his best. The picture was filmed in Manning, California, and was the first in which the popular stager of outdoor scenes appeared with the Universal Company.

The scene of filming operations for the Bosworth company shifted yesterday and after taking some scenes on one of the Kingsbury ranches for the picture "Yaqui," they spent the afternoon at the old Frankenburg corral southeast of town. The company is as busy as bees and every minute of the stay here is being made to count.

GAME HUNTERS ARE BACK

President J. B. Cook of the Pacific Creamery company and Superintendent Brown, of the United States Indian School at Phoenix, returned yesterday morning from their hunting expedition of several weeks into the country out from Fort Apache. They found wild turkeys fairly plentiful and succeeded in getting one deer, but outside of some small game that represents the harvest they made on the game crop. The trip was quite a pleasant one and except for the occasional lead roads and cold weather the two gentlemen thoroughly enjoyed the outing.
